

Andrew Lewis Sports

The Andrew Lewis Middle School basketball teams were snowed out of two days of action this week, and the wrestling team was hoping to get its match in Wednesday.

Lewis basketball teams had Monday games with Northside and Tuesday games with Woodrow Wilson snowed out. The Northside games were tentatively scheduled for Wednesday while the Woodrow Wilson games will not be made up.

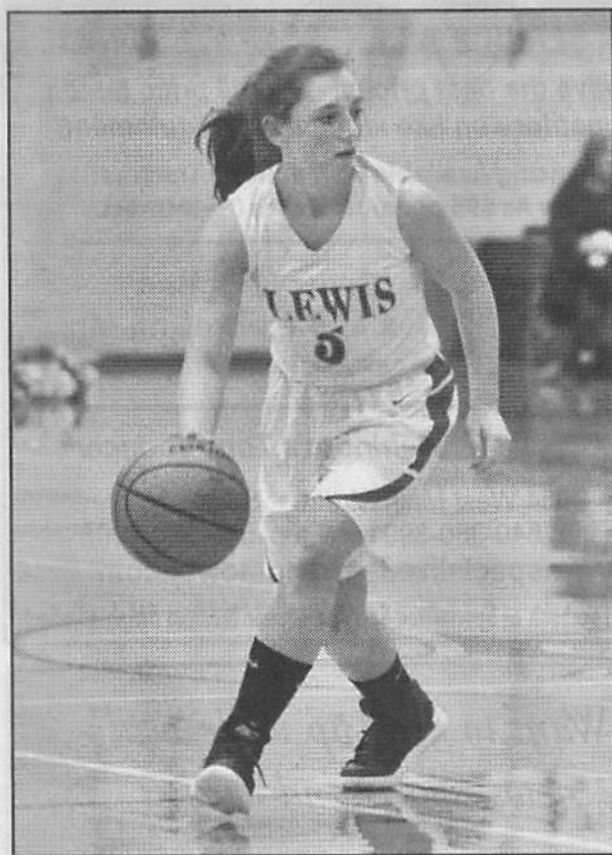

Lewis teams played Cave Spring last week and split, with the girls remaining undefeated as they took a 65-7 win over the Squires at Cave Spring. Zoe Robtison led Lewis with 17 points and 11 different girls scored, including Bayleigh Boothe with 10 and Brooklyn Smith and Summer Bayne with eight each. Daisy Dawyot had nine rebounds.

"I thought our defense was good and the girls shot the ball well," said coach Nat Franklin.

The boys lost to Cave Spring at home, 38-25.

Meanwhile, the Lewis wrestling team won their match against Central Academy, 60-27. Dakota Hawkins, Micah Brown, Patrick Helms, Marquel Calfe, and Thomas Miles all won their matches with pins.

The wrestlers were scheduled to be at Cave Spring Wednesday, weather permitting. The basketball teams have Byrd today, with the boys at home and the girls in Vinton.

Above, Zoe Robtison handles the ball for the Lewis girls. Below, Ty Porter wrestles for the Wolverines.

PHOTOS BY BRIAN HOFFMAN

