The Andrew Lewis girls remained unbeaten in basketball with wins over Hidden Valley last Thursday and Breckinridge on Monday.

The girls beat Breckinridge, 61-11, in Roanoke Monday night. Brooklyn Smith had a season high 16 points and Summer Bayne had 14. Maddie Smith had 10 assists.

"The girls played with great effort, on both ends of the court," said coach Nat Franklin. "Defensively is where the girls really set the tone for the game."

Last week at Hidden Valley the girls took a 59-8 win as Bayne scored 14 and Daisy Ann Dawyot had 10. Smith had seven boards and Zoe Robtison had seven steals and six assists.

"I thought our man to man defense was really good for three quarters," said Franklin. "Offensively, the girls did a really good job running the floor and passing the ball."
